The editor hereby acknowledges receipt of a beautiful post card from Mr. J. B. Cooley, picture representing scenery "on the road to Camp Keithley, Mindanao, Philippines." The pleasant remarks of the sender are also appreciated.

Death of Mr. Jno. S. Fair.

Mr. Jno. S. Fair died at his home in Cokesbury Thursday morning, aged 58 years. Mr. Fair was a native of Newberry, and son of the late Col. Simeon Fair, and brother of Mrs. Y. J. Pope and Col. Wm. Y. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and two sons, Simeon Fair, Herndon Fair, Mrs. Gaines, of Greenwood, and Miss Lily Fair.

Interment will be had at Rosemont cemetery Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock. The remains will arrive in Newberry at 12 o'clock and will be taken to the home of Col. W. Y. Fair, from which the funeral will be conducted.

IN MEMORIAM.

Young John Pope.

The Hon. Y. J. Pope, late chief justice of the State of South Carolina, was at the time of his death and had been for many years, a member of the board of trustees of Newberry college. His interest in the college was deep and unwavering and his wise counsel and valuable services were given to it regularly and ungrudgingly. A genial and unselfish gentleman, a friend of the young, and devoted to the cause of education, a gallant and faithful soldier; a distinguished jurist, a Christian patriot, he exemplified the high virtues of manhood and citizenship, and served his generation faithfully and well.

Resolved, That the board of trustees of Newberry college, with a keen sense of loss, records its grateful appreciation of the worth and the distinguished services of Judge Pope and directs a page of its minutes to be inscribed to his memory.

Resolved, That the secretary be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to the bereaved family, and that they be published in the county papers.

MERCHANTS CO-OPERATING.

Will Close Stores During Lectures of Hobson and Bryan—Route for the Trades Display.

The merchants of Newberry have entered into Chautauqua week with an interest and an enthusiasm which assures its success, and will make it an event in the annals of the city. The program for the week has been printed several times in The Herald and News, and the official program has been printed in a booklet and distributed throughout the city.

The exercises will open on Sunday evening at the opera house with a sermon by the Rev. Louis Bristow, of Abbeville. No admission charge is made for this exercise, and everybody is invited to be present. The band and quartette will be on hand and will give a sacred concert in connection with the service.

On Monday, when Captain Hobson delivers his lecture, and on Wednesday, when Mr. Bryan lectures, every store in town has agreed to close, except three. This will give the clerks and employees an opportunity to hear these two distinguished American citizens.

In addition to the regular program, there will be attractive features each day during the week.

On Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock there will be what is known as a trades display. Through the efforts of Mr. J. H. West and his committee, the following merchants have agreed to take part in this display, and they have entered into it with interest and enthusiasm: J. H. West, Summer Bros. Co., J. B. Mayes Book store, E. A. Griffin & Co., Security Loan & Investment Co., W. A. Hill, Summer & Hipp, Pepsi-Cola Co., S. N. Trakas, Fire department, Coca-Cola Co., E. Hugh Summer, Newberry Hotel, Booser Bros., W. O. Wilson, Newberry Cotton Mills, J. H. Wicker, Oil Mill and Ice Plant; Shelley-Wheeler Co., Astor Theatre, Newberry Machine Shop, W. G. Mayes, pharmacist; W. S. Cook Mercantile Co., J. L. Burns, Summer-Wise Stock Co., Newberry Concert Band, Mollohon Manufacturing Co., and J. P. Neel Cotton yard. It is also expected that there will be several floats from Prosperity, and they will be welcomed in the parade.

The procession will form a main street just beyond the residence of Mr. C. E. Summer, and will proceed down Main street to the drug store of Dr. Van Smith, thence turning to the right to Boyce street, and up Boyce street to College at the Crowwell hotel and thence up College to Main; down Main to Caldwell, and up Caldwell to The Herald and News building. This will be quite a feature and no doubt will be enjoyed by the people of the community. It is probable that this route may be changed or enlarged and any changes will be announced in Tuesday's paper.

Mr. J. H. West has offered a six dollar mahogany chair for the best display in the parade.

A few reserved seat tickets are still on sale and if you have not secured your ticket, you had better do so at once.

CRAFTS LODGED IN JAIL.

To Await Result of Examination of Wife's Stomach.

Greenville, June 13.—As a precautionary step in case the examination of the stomach of Mrs. Moses C. Crafts by the State medical authorities should reveal traces of poison, Coroner Batson this morning issued a warrant for the woman's husband and placed him in the county jail. Crafts had nothing to say when served with the warrant other than that he was being prosecuted by foolish relatives of his dead wife.

The investigation of Mrs. Crafts' death has caused little, if any, interest here, the general opinion being that the woman's relatives are laboring under misapprehensions.

Regard Analysis.

Nothing has been done in the chemical analysis of the stomach of the late Mrs. Moses C. Crafts. Boyden Nims, of Columbia, has the organ in charge, having received the commission for analysis from Coroner Batson, of Greenville, but stated early Wednesday afternoon that he has made no move since he can not be certain as to whether his fee will be paid. Mr. Nims has had trouble in several cases similar, where the counties concerned refused to make remuneration, claiming that the coroner was exceeding his authority in putting out the analysis at the fee charged.

Mr. Nims has had the stomach in his laboratory since Monday afternoon late, and is now in communication with Coroner Batson as to the matter.

It is stated from Greenville that Coroner Batson referred the matter to Gov. Blease.

ACCIDENTAL KILLING.

Negro Youth of Seven Years Kills a Negro Child Two Years of Age. No Prosecution.

On Tuesday afternoon of this week, Johnnie Johnson accidentally shot and killed Heyward Wadsworth, both colored, on the plantation of Mr. W. F. Suber, in No. 11 township. Johnson is about seven years old and had been engaged by the child's parents to take care of Heyward Wadsworth, a child of about two years. It is supposed that in handling a pistol, which was found in the house, that it was accidentally discharged, and that was the verdict of the jury.

Coroner Felker immediately went to the scene and held an inquest. He reported it to Solicitor Cooper, and issued a warrant for the arrest of Johnson.

Owing to the extreme youth of the boy, and under all the facts of the case, Solicitor Cooper did not hand out a bill, and the boy was discharged.

Mrs. Robertson's Music Recital.

The recital of Mrs. Robertson's music pupils was held at the studio, 1215 Main street, on last Friday evening. Only the parents and a few invited friends were present. An interesting program was rendered, and the pupils gave evidence of thorough and careful training. The occasion was most delightful.

Mrs. Robertson is a thorough musician, who loves music and who takes pride in her work, and the result is shown in the musical attainment of her pupils.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

Music Pupils of Miss Laura Blease Entertained About 75 Friends on Tuesday Evening.

After the program by the class there was a beautiful trio played by Misses Ollie, Ethel and Lera Koon, members of the class during the term preceding the present one.

A social hour was then spent during which time refreshing punch was served by Misses Louise Lyles and Ollie Koon from a crystal bowl of ice imbedded in flowers.

Miss Emma Rodger, who was assisting the teacher in entertaining, was called upon to play. She rendered several most beautiful selections and quite entranced the guests with her excellent music. Miss Rodger is a recent graduate of Chicago college, and a skillful musician.

This was a delightful musical, all the pupils giving pleasure to their friends, but special mention should be made of the wee, little maiden, Mabel Jones, who captivated the audience by the rendition of her selections in such perfect time, though such a youthful little lady and a music pupil of only a few months.

FIRST BALE BRINGS $1,015.

Houston, June 12.—The year's first bale of cotton was sold here today for $2,05.84 per pound, the total weight being 493 pounds and the price $1,015. This was the highest price ever paid on the Houston Exchange for a bale of cotton. S. Jesse Jones, who is not in the cotton business, was the successful bidder. He says he does not know yet what he will do with the cotton. He had three competitors until the $1,000 mark was reached, when the others dropped out.

The bale was carefully examined and pronounced to be entirely new cotton, and classed as strict middling.

Davenport-Turner.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davenport Wednesday evening, June 14, at 8:30 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Euna Mae, became the wife of Sidney Johnson Turner, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. G. A. Wright.

Pink and white were effectively combined in the decorations of the house, and the porch where punch was served was beautifully lighted with countless Japanese lanterns.

Just before the ceremony Miss Ettá Shelley delightfully sang, "If I Had the World to Give," and as Miss Frances Davenport played the first strains of the wedding march the bridal party descended the stairs. Just before the bride came Misses Troxile Wright and Annie Williams, two dainty little flower girls, making a charming picture in their pretty white dresses with white ribbons. From tiny baskets they scattered the way of the bride with fragrant sweet-peas.

The bride entered with her sister, Miss Betty Davenport, as maid of honor, who carried pink and white carnations and wore a beautiful gown of white marquisette. The bride was joined in the parlor by the groom with his best man, Mr. F. Turner Martin. She looked beautiful and girlish in her bridal gown of white mesh-line, trimmed with Irish, Point and Duchess lace, over which her bridal veil floated, caught with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. Just after the ceremony there was brilliant reception about 100 guests being present.

Punch was served by Miss Julia Cunningham and Vie Davenport, and refreshments consisting of a salad and ice course were dispensed by Mrs. Gaillard, Miss Annie Jacobs, Miss Hattie Shelley, Mrs. Geo. Epps, Misses Susie Davenport, Abbie Gaillard, Louise Perry, Margaret Webb, Margaret Jacobs Rebecca Sligh. The presents were seen in the dining room, which was beautiful with its decorations of Southern smilax and pink candles. They were numerous and beautiful, attesting the great popularity of the young bride and groom.

Among the cut-of-town guests were: Mrs. and Miss Montjoy, of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Turner, of Ninety Six; Miss Maud Chandler, of Clinton; Misses Frances and Vie Davenport, of Warrenton, Ga.; Miss Julia Cunningham, of Madison, S. C.; Miss Margaret Webb, of Florida.

She is From Newberry.

Miss Julia Johnstone, the accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnstone, who has recently finished the junior work in Limestone college, has been elected president of the senior class for 1912. She also completed the work in the Winnie Davis School of History and has received her diploma. Last year she received her music diploma from Limestone and next year she will get her A. B. diploma from that excellent institution of learning. Miss Johnstone was also elected vice president of the Y. W. C. A., in addition to holding the position of junior critic in the Cooper society of the college. All of which, and especially this highest honor in the senior class, shows that Newberry's representative at Limestone is a general favorite and justly popular because of her attainments as well as her personality.
